BACKGROUND

In 1982, the Dallas Arboretum and Botanical Society, Inc. (DABS) entered into an agreement with the City for the operation, management and maintenance of an arboretum and botanical garden. The City, through the Park and Recreation Department, owns the DeGolyer Estate and Camp Estate properties donated through DABS in 1984. DABS was organized for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, promoting, and operating one or more arboretum and botanical gardens for the benefit of the citizens of Dallas and its members. Since then, DABS has provided beautiful gardens and theatrical-themed displays to thousands of citizens and visitors to the City of Dallas.
